Enrolments for 2020

As the term is quickly coming to an end, we are at the point of our planning cycle in which we are looking at 2020 enrolment numbers. By knowing what numbers that we will have for next year, we can then begin to look at class structures and this will assist the school in its preparations.

During Term 4 part of the process here at Aberfoyle Hub has three transition visits for our new Receptions during Weeks 5, 6 and 7. We also have a transition visit for all of our classes. This gives each child the opportunity to meet their new teacher for the new school year. An update of what transition format we will have will be sent to respective families next term. An option we have been looking at is having the visit set during eating time before lunch. Students are able to enjoy the time not only eating their lunch but seeing the class they will be in and chatting to their respective teacher.

If you are aware of families who wish to enrol at Aberfoyle Hub, encourage them to do so or encourage them to book a tour of our school.

Before and After School Stay

It is pleasing to see families using our school facilities after school before heading home. I would however like to remind you that while it's great to see our students have fun playing on school equipment, we do request that certain rules are respected. I would like to remind students that they are to refrain from kicking balls in the court yard area. Apart from having a number of classes and windows that may be damaged, we also have many people who walk in this space. People can be hurt and we have recently had a case of a staff member being seriously hurt. If you wish to play ball games which involves kicking please do so on the oval.

It is also very important that while you are out there please be mindful to be in an area where you have line of sight of your children. Children do require supervision when playing as accidents do occur and they can be hurt.

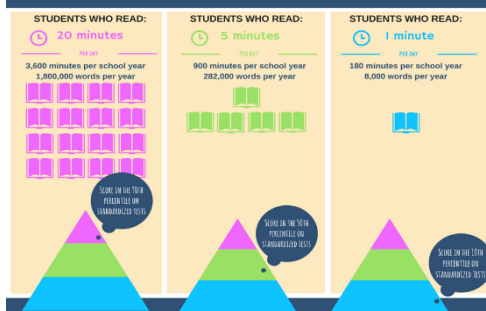

A timely reminder also that no student should be on school grounds before 8:30am. The grounds before 8:30am are not supervised therefore we cannot cover the duty of care for your child. If you do require to have your child at school before this time, then please use the OHS service as this will ensure that children are safe at all times.

Benefits of Reading

Reading is a skill that sets the foundation for all of us in all subject areas and dealing with real life dilemmas ranging from work to the running of a home for example. One of the challenges we face is information overload when on the internet.

A challenge for all of us is finding the time to hear our children read and the importance of it. Below is an infographic providing evidence of what our children can achieve from reading 20 minutes per night, 5 minutes and 1 minute per night. In future newsletters I will be sharing other added benefits of reading.

Why read 20 minutes at home?

Talented Student Artist

One of our students, Rhyley, recently had a painting accepted for showing at the Adelaide Festival Centre, with an opening night last Thursday. His proud Mum, Nikki, wrote to tell us...

His was the first painting to be sold. The woman who bought it stood in line for over an hour to make sure she got it. We met 3 other people who also wanted to buy it. Rhyley had about 16 of his birth family there to support him. Just wonderful for him. Then, to top it off he came second in the competition, getting a certificate for highly commended. We are very proud of him. The photos below are the painting, him painting it, our family and Rhyley and me with his certificate. The painting behind me was the deserving winner. It was done by a 13 or 14 year old girl from the lands and is of her grandmother.

We are all very excited about the news and we know Rhyley is, too!

The Women in My Life

Painting by Rhyley Chenoweth, June 2019

Accepted for showing in the 2019, Our Young Mob Exhibition (22 August to 3 October 219) at the Adelaide Festival Centre

STORY OF THE PAINTING

I am a 10 year old Ngarrindjeri boy living with my two foster mums. The story of this painting shows me surrounded by the important women in my life. You will find me as the bigger, bluish circle. In the top left hand corner is my Nana who I met at the park when I was four. She is the great grandmother of my cousins who live near Keith with my aunties. I've had a sleepover with them and it was great. They are in the circle between me and my Nana. They stay with us when they come to Adelaide. My birth mother is in the top right hand corner. I want to meet her again and my mums are helping me. My main mum is below me in the circle in the middle at the bottom. She has looked after and loved me since I was four weeks old. The other circles represent my spare mum and her family, my main mum's family, my respite family and special friends who are always there for me. The overall earth tones of the picture and the wavy paths at the top connect me with my birth family. The straight lines on the side are the streets of the city where I live.

BULLY AUDIT: Term 3

Dealing with Bullying in our Schools

During Week 9 of this term we will be conducting a Bullying Audit with all Reception to Year 7 classes. We are committed to creating a supportive environment free from bullying, harassment and violence. Your child will be participating by completing the Bully Audit Form. Class teachers will collate information that the students provide. Conversations will be had with any students who are identified by their peers through this process. Discussions will centre on what needs to improve/change to support positive behavior. You will be contacted if your child has been identified through this process and a meeting arranged where applicable.

Di's DIALOGUE

As many of you may know, I was diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma at the end of last term and started my chemotherapy treatment during the holidays. The treatment is very aggressive with me losing my hair after the first treatment. I am as I am writing, on my second treatment and tolerating it very well. I have started a blog and invite anyone to join in my journey through this medium.

I have been following the school happenings on the Facebook page and Mrs Magnusson has kept me up to date. Congrats on a great Book Week Parade!

Hope you all have a great rest of term.

You will receive an oral health report which will have information on your child's visit and notes written by the dental team as well as any necessary referrals at the end of the visit if treatment could not be completed on site. 1 in 2 Aussie kids have a decayed tooth, with your help we hope to reduce these numbers within South Australia by 2021.

Book Week Parade

We were lucky to have beautiful weather for our parade. What a fantastic display of various and creative costumes. A big "thank you" to the parents/grandparents who came along. Fun was had by everyone. Pats on the back all round - it was a very successful parade.
